This prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein contain and other “forward looking” statements that are forward looking within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, the Company’s expectations regarding: the Company’s intention to negotiate its withdrawal from the multi-employer defined benefit pension plans (“MEPPs”) provided under collective bargaining agreements that provide for such plans in fiscal 2012 and the Company’s estimate of $5 million in withdrawal liabilities, the successful negotiation of all remaining plans; the Company’s plan to complete its phased, multi-year rollout of the SAP platform by the end of 2013; the benefits to be derived from the SAP implementation, including the Company’s estimate of an aggregate of $75 million to $125 million of additional income on an annual run-rate basis upon full implementation; the Company’s expectation to be at the run-rate of the mid-point of the target earnings per share range by December 2013; the Company’s expectation of earnings of $0.82 to $0.87 per diluted share for the first quarter ending June 30, 2012 and a share of $3.58 to $3.73 for fiscal 2012, including restructuring charges and implementation costs and depreciation expense associated with the rollout, excluding any potential MEPP withdrawal charges; the Company’s belief as to the benefits to be derived from the reorganization of its business support centers; the Company’s expectation as to the long-term growth profiles of its strategic products; the Company’s expectation as to the financial impact of calcium carbide supply constraints; the Company’s expectation that its overall effective tax rate for fiscal 2012 will be within the range of 25% to 30% of tax earnings; the Company’s belief that it has sufficient liquidity from cash from operations and under its revolving credit facilities to meet its operating expenditure and other financial commitments; the Company’s belief that it can obtain financing on reasonable terms; the Company’s belief as to the Company’s ability to manage its exposure to interest rate risk through the use of interest rate derivatives; the performance of counterparties under their agreements; the Company’s expectation as to the amount of losses to be reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive income into earnings within 12 months; the estimate of future interest payments on the Company’s long-term debt obligations; the estimate of future receipts under interest rate swap agreements; and the Company’s exposure to foreign currency exchange fluctuations.

These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statement include, but are not limited to: the Company’s inability to meet its earnings estimates resulting from lower sales, higher product costs and/or higher operating expenses than that forecasted by the Company; weakening of the economy resulting in weaker demand for the Company’s products; weakening operating and financial performance of the Company’s customers, which can negatively impact the Company’s ability to collect its accounts receivable; changes in the environmental regulations that affect the Company’s sales of specialty gases; higher than expected tax expense for fiscal 2012 than that estimated by the Company resulting from changes in tax laws, changes in reserves and other estimates; increases in the interest rate impact on the Company’s ability to pay and/or grow its dividend as a result of loan covenant and other restrictions; a decline in demand for the Company’s products; adverse customer response to the Company’s strategic product sales initiatives; a lack of cross-selling opportunities for the Company’s products; lack of specialty gas sales growth due to a downturn in certain markets; the negative effect of an economic downturn on strategic product sales; the Company’s inability to diversify against cyclical demand for strategic products to diversify against cyclical demand; supply shortages of certain gases and the resulting inability of the Company to meet demand for its products.

PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information about us. It may not contain all of the information that may be important to you. You should read this entire prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, including our consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto, together with the information incorporated by reference, before making an investment decision. Our fiscal year ends on March 31 and in our fiscal years, we refer to the twelve-month period ending March 31 of such year.

Our Company

We are the largest U.S. distributor of industrial, medical and specialty gases (delivered in “packaged” or cylinder form), and hardware, equipment and supplies. We are also one of the largest U.S. distributors of safety products, the largest U.S. producer of nitrous oxide and carbon dioxide producer in the Southeast and a leading distributor of process chemicals, refrigerants and ammonia products. During 2011, we had net sales of $4.25 billion and credit serviceable EBITDA of $742.6 million. We provide a reconciliation of credit serviceable EBITDA to GAAP counterpart in “—Summary Historical Financial Data.”

With sales to a wide variety of industry segments and no single customer accounting for more than approximately 0.5% of sales, we are not dependent on a single or small group of customers or industry segments. We market our products to this diversified customer base through more than 14,000 employees and approximately 1,100 locations including branches, retail stores, packaged gas fill plants, specialty gas fill and distribution centers. We also distribute our products and services through retail stores, strategic customer account programs, telephone sales, as well as independent distributors. Our national scale and strong local presence offer a competitive edge to our diversified customer base.

We have two reportable business segments, Distribution and All Other Operations. The Distribution business segment accounted for 90% of our consolidated sales for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2011. The Distribution business segment’s principal products include industrial gases sold in packaged and bulk quantities, as well as hardgoods. Our air separation facilities and national specialty gas labs primarily produce industrial gases for the Distribution business segment’s business units. Gas sales include nitrogen, oxygen, argon, helium, hydrogen, welding and fuel gases and propane, carbon dioxide, nitrous oxide, ultra high purity grades, special application blends and process chemicals. Business units in the Distribution segment also recognize rental revenue, derived from gas cylinders, cryogenic liquid containers, bulk storage tanks, tube trailers and related equipment. Gas and rent represented 60% of the Distribution business segment’s sales in fiscal year 2011. Hardgoods consist of welding equipment, safety products, construction supplies, and maintenance, repair and operating supplies. Hardgoods sales represented 40% of the Distribution business segment’s sales in fiscal year 2011.

The All Other Operations business segment consists of six business units. The primary products manufactured and/or distributed by the All Other Operations business segment are carbon dioxide, dry ice (solid form of carbon dioxide), nitrous oxide, ammonia and refrigerant gases. The All Other Operations segment accounted for 10% of our consolidated sales for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2011.

We operate in 48 U.S. states, Canada and to a lesser extent Mexico, Russia, Dubai and Europe. Our Distribution business segment operates multiple use facilities consisting of more than 875 branches, approximately 300 cylinder fill plants, 61 regional specialty gas laboratories and laboratories, one medical equipment facility, one research and development center, one specialty gas equipment center, 16 acetylene units, as well as six national hardgoods distribution centers, various customer call centers, buying centers and administrative offices. Our business segment consists of businesses, located throughout the United States, which operate multiple use facilities consisting of approximately 100 branch/distribution locations, six liquid carbon dioxide and 11 dry ice production facilities, and four nitrous oxide production facilities.

Our industry has three principal modes of gas distribution: on-site or pipeline supply, bulk or merchant supply, and cylinder or packaged gas distribution. Our focus has primarily been on packaged gas distribution, supplying customers with gases in cylinders and in less than truck-load bulk containers. Gas distributors also sell welding hardgoods. We believe the U.S. market for packaged gases and welding hardgoods to be approximately $1.5 billion in revenues.

Recent Developments

Stock Repurchase Program

On May 5, 2011, we announced a program to repurchase up to $300 million of our outstanding shares of common stock. As of May 5, 2011, we had approximately 79.8 million common shares outstanding. We may repurchase shares from time to time for cash in open market transactions in accordance with applicable federal securities laws. We will determine the timing and the amount of any repurchases based on market conditions, share price and other factors. The stock repurchase program will be funded under our Credit Facility, has no pre-conditions and may be suspended or discontinued at any time. See "Use of Proceeds."

Our Strategy

Our primary objective is to maximize shareholder value by driving market-leading sales growth through core and strategic product offerings, infrastructure and customer base, by pursuing acquisitions in our core business and in adjacent businesses, by providing outstanding customer service and improving operational efficiencies. To meet this objective, we are focusing on:

- a new customer-centric sales and marketing alignment that provides leadership and strategic support throughout all sales and marketing strategic accounts program, allowing us to leverage our unique combination of products, application technology and service across our national footprint;
- strategic product offerings with strong growth profiles due to favorable customer segments, application development, regulatory changes, regulation, strong cross-selling opportunities, or a combination thereof (e.g., bulk gases, specialty gases, medical products and safety products);

Reconciliation of Credit Serviceable EBITDA

We define credit serviceable EBITDA as operating income before stock-based compensation expense, depreciation and amortization. Credit serviceable EBITDA provides investors meaningful insight into our ability to generate cash from operations to support required working capital expenditures, debt repayment and other financial obligations, as well as to fund future acquisitions. Credit serviceable EBITDA is not a measure of performance under GAAP, and our computation of credit serviceable EBITDA may vary from others in our industry. You should not consider credit serviceable EBITDA an alternative to operating income or net income as a measure of our operating performance or to net cash provided by operating activities as a measure of liquidity. Credit serviceable EBITDA has important limitations as an analytical tool, and you should not consider it in isolation, or as a substitute for results as reported under GAAP. For example, credit serviceable EBITDA:

- does not reflect our cash expenditures or requirements for capital expenditures or capital commitments;
- does not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for, our working capital needs; and
- does not reflect any costs related to the current or future replacement of assets being depreciated and amortized.

The following table provides a reconciliation of operating income to credit serviceable EBITDA to net cash provided by operating activities:

Operating income
Add:
Depreciation and amortization
Stock-based compensation expense
Credit serviceable EBITDA
Sources (uses) of cash excluded from credit serviceable EBITDA, included in net cash provided by operating activities:
Interest expense, net
Discount on securitization of trade receivables ⁽¹⁾
Current income taxes
Other income, net
Loss on sale of PP&E
Cash (used in) provided by changes in assets and liabilities ⁽¹⁾
Net cash provided by operating activities

(1) On April 1, 2010, we adopted new accounting guidance which affected the presentation of our trade receivable securitization program. Under the new guidance, the amounts previously reflected as "Discount on securitization of trade receivables" are now reflected within "Interest expense, net". The new accounting treatment resulted in the recognition of both the trade receivables securitized under the program and the balance of the program on the Consolidated Balance Sheet, which led to a $295 million increase in trade receivables and long-term debt. The impact of this change on the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows was to reflect the increase in trade receivables as cash used in operating activities of $295 million and the increase in long-term debt as cash provided by financing activities of $295 million.

Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges

Set forth below is information concerning our ratio of earnings to fixed charges on a consolidated basis for the periods indicated. The ratio of earnings to fixed charges has been computed by dividing "earnings available for fixed charges" by "fixed charges." For purposes of computing the ratio of earnings to fixed charges, "earnings available for fixed charges" principally consists of (i) earnings before income taxes and minority interest, plus (ii) fixed charges. "Fixed charges" principally consists of interest expense and the portion of rental expense that is representative of the interest factor.

RISK FACTORS

Any investment in the notes involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the risks described below, as well as the "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2011, incorporated by reference herein, before making a decision to invest. Some of these factors relate principally to our business. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only ones facing us. Additional risks and uncertainties, not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also have a material adverse effect on our business and operations.

If any of the matters included in the following risks were to occur, our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flow and other important aspects of our business may be materially adversely affected. In such case, you may lose all or part of your original investment.

Risks Relating to Investment in the Notes

Investors may find it difficult to trade the notes.

The notes are a new issue of securities, and there is currently no public market for the notes. We do not intend to apply for listing on any stock exchange. Although the underwriters have informed us that they intend to make a market in the notes, they are under no obligation to do so and may discontinue market making activities at any time without notice. Any such market making will be subject to the limitations imposed by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

We also cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your notes at a particular time or that the prices that you receive when you sell your notes will be equal to or greater than the price you paid for them. We cannot assure you as to the level of liquidity of the trading market for the notes. Future trading prices of the notes will depend on many factors, including:

- our operating performance, prospects and financial condition or the operating performance, prospects and financial condition of our parent company, Airgas, Inc., generally;
- the interest of securities dealers in making a market for the notes; and
- the market for similar securities.

It is possible that the market for the notes will be subject to disruptions. Any disruptions may have a negative effect on the holder's ability to sell the notes, which may in turn have a negative effect on our operating performance, prospects and financial performance.

Changes in credit ratings issued by nationally recognized statistical rating organizations could adversely affect our cost of financing and the market price of our securities.

Credit rating agencies rate our debt securities on factors that include our operating results, actions that we take, their view of the general outlook for the economy and their view of the general outlook for the economy. Actions taken by the rating agencies can include maintaining, upgrading or downgrading our debt securities or placing us on a watch list for possible future downgrading. Downgrading the credit rating of our debt securities or placing us on a watch list for possible future downgrading would likely increase our cost of financing, including resulting in an increase to the interest rate applicable to borrowings, which may in turn have a negative effect on our access to the capital markets and have an adverse effect on the market price of our securities.

We may not have sufficient funds to purchase the notes upon a change of control triggering event.

If there is a change of control triggering event under the terms of the indenture governing the notes, each holder of notes may be entitled to purchase the notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the date of purchase. In order to purchase the notes, we must have sufficient funds available to do so.

notes, we might have to refinance our outstanding indebtedness, which we might not be able to do. Even if we were able to refinance our financing might be on terms unfavorable to us. In addition, our Credit Facility provides that the occurrence of certain kinds of change of control or default thereunder. We cannot assure you that we will have the financial ability to purchase outstanding notes upon the occurrence of a “Description of the Notes—Change of Control Triggering Event.”

The assets of our subsidiaries may not be available to make payments on the notes.

We are a holding company and our assets consist primarily of direct and indirect ownership interests in, and our business is conducted through our subsidiaries. We rely primarily on dividends or other distributions from our subsidiaries to meet our obligations for payment of principal and interest on debt obligations and corporate expenses. Consequently, our ability to repay our debt, including the notes, depends on the earnings of our subsidiaries and our ability to receive funds from our subsidiaries through dividends or other payments or distributions. The ability of our subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other advances to us is subject to restrictions imposed by applicable laws (including bankruptcy laws), tax considerations and the policies of our subsidiaries. Our foreign subsidiaries in particular may be subject to currency controls, repatriation restrictions, withholding obligations and other legal limits. If we do not receive such funds from our subsidiaries, we may be unable to pay interest or principal on the notes when due.

In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of any of our subsidiaries, holders of their indebtedness and other liabilities, including creditors and other obligations, including any preferred stock, will be entitled to payment of their claims from the assets of those subsidiaries available for distribution to us. As a result, the notes are effectively subordinated to all of the liabilities of our subsidiaries which, as of December 31, 2011, were approximately $1.6 billion (of which $57 million consisted of debt for borrowed money and $295 million reflected indebtedness under our Credit Facility).

The instruments governing our indebtedness do not limit our acquisitions and may allow us to incur additional indebtedness in the future.

We have historically expanded our business through acquisitions. A part of our business strategy is to continue to grow through acquisitions and to expand our distribution network. During fiscal 2011, we completed eight acquisitions. The indenture governing the notes, and the terms of the notes, do not limit the number or scale of acquisitions that we may complete. Because the consummation of acquisitions and integration of acquired businesses is a key part of our business strategy, this means that holders of the notes will be subject to the risks inherent in our acquisition strategy.

DESCRIPTION OF OTHER OBLIGATIONS

Senior Credit Facility

On September 13, 2010, we entered into a four year $750 million revolving credit facility (the "Credit Facility"). The Credit Facility consists of a $65 million U.S. dollar revolving credit line, with a $65 million dollar letter of credit sublimit and a $50 million dollar swingline sublimit, and a $100 million multi-currency revolving credit line. The maturity date of the revolving credit lines is September 13, 2014. Under circumstances described below, the revolving credit line may be increased by an additional $325 million, provided that the multi-currency revolving credit line may not be increased by an additional $50 million.

The U.S. dollar revolving credit line and the multi-currency revolving credit line may bear interest at either a eurocurrency rate (the "Eurocurrency Rate") plus an applicable margin or, in the case of U.S. dollar-denominated borrowings, a U.S. base rate (the "U.S. Base Rate") plus an applicable margin. The U.S. Base Rate is equal to the British Bankers Association LIBOR Rate and is subject to adjustment for reserve requirements and mandatory costs. The U.S. Base Rate is the highest of (a) the Federal Funds Rate plus 1/2 of 1%, (b) the rate of interest in effect for such day as publicly announced from time to time by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, its "prime rate" and (c) the Eurocurrency Rate plus 1.0% per annum. The applicable margin is determined with reference to the credit rating of the senior unsecured long-term debt. As of March 31, 2011, the U.S. dollar revolver borrowings bear interest at the Eurocurrency Rate plus 1.0% per annum. As of March 31, 2011, the multi-currency revolver bears interest based on a spread of 212.5 basis points over the Eurocurrency Rate plus margin. As of March 31, 2011, the average effective interest rates on the U.S. dollar revolver and the multi-currency revolver were 3.85% and 4.85%, respectively.

A commitment fee payable on the actual daily unused portion of the credit facility is determined with reference to the credit rating of the senior unsecured long-term debt. As of March 31, 2011, the commitment fee was equal to 0.35% per annum. Swingline loans are not considered as part of the credit facility for purposes of this calculation.

The Credit Facility contains customary affirmative and negative covenants, including a financial covenant whereby the ratio of EBITDA to debt may be no greater than 3.5 to 1.0. The Credit Facility contains certain customary events of default, including, without limitation, breaches of covenants, breaches of representations and warranties, certain monetary judgments and bankruptcy and ERISA events. The Credit Facility also contains default provisions whereby a default under the senior and senior subordinated notes discussed below or the notes offered hereby would constitute a default under the Credit Facility. In the event of default, repayment of borrowings under the Credit Facility may be accelerated.

As of March 31, 2011, the Company had $374 million of borrowings under the Credit Facility, including $331 million under the U.S. dollar revolver and $43 million under the multi-currency revolver. The Company also had outstanding letters of credit of $41 million issued under the Credit Facility.

The Company also maintains a committed revolving line of credit of up to € million (U.S. $7.1 million) to fund its expansion in Europe. These borrowings are outside of the Credit Facility. At March 31, 2011, French revolving credit borrowings were €2.9 million (U.S. $4.1 million). The French revolving credit borrowings are based on the eurocurrency rate plus an applicable rate determined with reference to the credit rating of the enhanced, senior unsecured long-term debt. As of March 31, 2011, the effective interest rate on the French revolving credit borrowings was 4.85%.

Additionally, the Company may redeem the 2013 Notes prior to their maturity, in whole or in part, at 100% of the principal plus any accrued but unpaid interest and applicable fees.

The 2013, 2014 and 2015 Notes contain covenants that could restrict the incurrence of liens and limit sale and leaseback transactions.

Senior Subordinated Notes

At March 31, 2011, the Company had $215 million of 7.125% senior subordinated notes maturing October 1, 2018 (the "2018 Notes") outstanding. The 2018 Notes bear interest at a fixed annual rate of 7.125%, payable semi-annually on October 1 and April 1 of each year. The 2018 Notes have a discount and yield 7.125%. The 2018 Notes have a call feature that permits the Company, at its option, to call the 2018 Notes at scheduled dates and prices. The first scheduled optional redemption date is October 1, 2013, at 103.563% of the principal amount.

Acquisition and Other Notes

Our long-term debt also includes acquisition and other notes, principally consisting of notes issued to sellers of businesses acquired by the Company. These notes are payable in periodic installments. At March 31, 2011, acquisition and other notes totaled $9.9 million with an average interest rate of approximately 7.125% and a term of approximately one year.

Trade Receivables Securitization

The Company participates in a receivables purchase agreement (the "Securitization Agreement") with three commercial banks to sell its trade receivables on a revolving basis. Effective April 1, 2010, under new accounting guidance, the Company's sale of qualified trade receivables is accounted for as a secured borrowing under which collateralize amounts borrowed from the commercial banks. Trade receivables that collateralize the Securitization Agreement are held in a purpose entity, which is consolidated for financial reporting purposes. Qualified trade receivables in the amount of the outstanding borrowing under the Securitization Agreement are not available to the general creditors of the Company. The maximum amount of the Securitization Agreement is $295 million at approximately LIBOR plus 80 basis points. At March 31, 2011, the amount of outstanding borrowing under the Securitization Agreement was $295 million of debt on the Consolidated Balance Sheet. Amounts borrowed under the Securitization Agreement could fluctuate monthly based on the level of qualified trade receivables available to collateralize the Securitization Agreement. The Securitization Agreement expires on the customary events of termination, including standard cross default provisions with respect to outstanding debt. The amount of outstanding debt under the Securitization Agreement at March 31, 2011 was $295 million.

Table of Contents

Interest Rate Derivatives

The Company manages its exposure to changes in market interest rates. The Company's involvement with derivative instruments includes (a) interest rate swap agreements used to manage well-defined interest rate risk exposures and (b) treasury rate lock agreements used to fix the interest rate on forecasted debt issuances. At March 31, 2011, the Company was party to a total of five interest rate swap agreements with an aggregate notional amount of $300 million. These variable interest rate swaps effectively convert the Company's $300 million of fixed rate 2013 Notes to variable rate debt. At March 31, 2011, the swap agreements required the Company to make variable interest payments based on a weighted average forward rate of 2.17% and receive fixed interest payments from counterparties based on a fixed rate of 2.85%. The maturity of these fair value swaps coincides with the maturity date of the 2013 Notes.

During fiscal 2011, fixed interest rate swaps with an aggregate notional amount of $250 million matured and at March 31, 2011, the Company had no fixed interest rate swap agreements.

Change of Control Triggering Event

Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event, unless we have exercised our right to redeem the notes as described in the prospectus, "Redemption," each holder of notes will have the right to require us to purchase all or a portion (equal to $2,000 and any integral multiple thereof) of such holder's notes pursuant to the offer described below (the "Change of Control Offer"), at a purchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of purchase (the "Change of Control Payment"), subject to the rights of holders of notes on the redemption date and interest due on the relevant interest payment date.

We will comply in all material respects with the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act and any other securities laws to the extent those laws and regulations are applicable in connection with the repurchase of the notes as a result of a Change of Control Triggering Event. If the provisions of any such securities laws or regulations conflict with the Change of Control Offer provisions of the notes, we will comply with the provisions of the notes and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached our obligations under the Change of Control Offer provisions of the notes by virtue of such compliance.

For purposes of the foregoing discussion of a Change of Control Offer, the following definitions are applicable:

(5) the first day on which a majority of the members of the board of directors of Airgas are not Continuing Directors.

“Change of Control Triggering Event” means, with respect to the notes, the notes cease to be rated Investment Grade by each of the Rating Agencies during the period (the “Trigger Period”) commencing 60 days prior to the first public announcement by us of any Change of Control (or any event described in (1) through (5) above) ending 60 days following consummation of such Change of Control (which Trigger Period will be extended following consummation of such Change of Control if, as any of the Rating Agencies has publicly announced that it is considering a possible ratings change). Prospectus Supplement - Airgas, Inc.

“Moody’s” means Moody’s Investors Service, Inc., a subsidiary of Moody’s Corporation, and its successors.

“Person” means any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, joint-stock company, trust, unincorporated company, government or any agency or political subdivision thereof or any other entity.

“Principal” means Peter McCausland (and in the event of his incompetence or death, his estate, heirs, executor, administrator, co-representative (collectively, “heirs”)) or any Person controlled, directly or indirectly, by Peter McCausland or his heirs.

“Rating Agency” means each of Moody’s and S&P; provided, that if Moody’s or S&P ceases to rate the notes or fails to make a rating available for reasons outside our control, we may appoint another “nationally recognized statistical rating organization” within the meaning of the Exchange Act as a replacement for such Rating Agency; provided, that we shall give notice of such appointment to the trustee.

“Related Party” means:

- (1) any immediate family member (in the case of an individual) of the Principal; or

“S&P” means Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc., and its successors.

“Voting Stock” of any specified Person as of any date means the Capital Stock of such Person that is at the time entitled to vote on the board of directors of such Person.

The definition of Change of Control includes a phrase relating to the direct or indirect sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of all of the properties or assets of Airgas, Inc. and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole. Although there is a limited body of case law interpreting this phrase, there is no precise, established definition of the phrase under applicable law. Accordingly, the applicability of the requirement that we not effect a sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of less than all of the assets of Airgas, Inc. and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole may be uncertain.

In addition, under a recent Delaware Chancery Court interpretation of a change of control repurchase requirement with a continuing duty, our directors may approve a slate of shareholder nominated directors without endorsing them or while simultaneously recommending and endorsing a slate of directors. Under the foregoing interpretation would permit our Board of Directors to approve a slate of directors that included a majority of dissident directors, and the ultimate election of such dissident slate would not constitute a “Change of Control Triggering Event” that would trigger our obligation to repurchase your notes as described above.

These restrictions do not apply to:

(1) the Incurrence of any Lien on any shares of stock, Indebtedness or other obligations of a Subsidiary or any Principal Property of the Company or any Restricted Subsidiary (including acquisitions by way of merger or consolidation) by us or a Restricted Subsidiary contemporaneously with the Indenture (including acquisitions by way of merger or consolidation) by us or a Restricted Subsidiary contemporaneously with the Indenture, or any days thereafter, to secure or provide for the payment or financing of any part of the purchase price thereof, or the assumption of any Indebtedness or other obligations of a Subsidiary or any Principal Property acquired after the date of the Indenture existing at the time of the acquisition of any shares of stock, Indebtedness or other obligations of a Subsidiary or any Principal Property subject to any Lien, provided that every such Lien referred to in this clause (1) shall attach only to the shares of stock, Indebtedness or other obligations of the Property so acquired and fixed improvements thereon;

(2) any Lien on any shares of stock, Indebtedness or other obligations of a Subsidiary or any Principal Property existing on the date of the Indenture issued;

(3) any Lien on any shares of stock, Indebtedness or other obligations of a Subsidiary or any Principal Property in favor of any Restricted Subsidiary;

(4) any Lien on Principal Property being constructed or improved securing loans to finance such construction or improvement;

(5) any Lien in favor of the United States of America or any State, or in favor of any department, agency or instrumentality of the United States or of any other country or any political subdivision of a foreign country, the purpose of which is to secure partial, progress, advance or final payment of any debt or other obligation;

(6) any Lien imposed by law, for example mechanics', workmen's, repairmen's or other similar Liens arising in the ordinary course of business;

(7) any pledges or deposits under workmen's compensation or similar legislation or in certain other circumstances;

(8) any Lien in connection with legal proceedings;

(9) any Lien for taxes or assessments;

(10) any Lien to secure the performance of bids, tenders, letters of credit, contracts (other than contracts for the payment or performance of obligations, surety, customs, appeal, performance and payment bonds and other obligations of like nature, in each such case arising in the ordinary course of business); and

(11) any renewal of or substitution for any Lien permitted by any of the preceding clauses (1) through (4), provided, in the case of clause (1), (2) or (4), the debt secured is not increased nor the Lien extended to any additional assets.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we or any Restricted Subsidiary may create or assume Liens in addition to those permitted by clause (1) through (11) above, or extend or replace such Liens, provided that at the time of such creation, assumption, renewal, extension or replacement of such Lien, the total outstanding Indebtedness secured by Liens Incurred pursuant to this paragraph, together with the total outstanding Attributable Debt of the Company and its Restricted Subsidiaries arising from sale and leaseback transactions entered into pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture described below in the last paragraph under "—Leaseback Transactions," does not exceed 10% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets.

For the purposes of this "Restrictions on Liens" covenant and the "Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions" covenant, the creation of a Lien secured by a Lien on any shares of stock, Indebtedness or other obligations of a Subsidiary or any Principal Property, and the creation of any Indebtedness or other obligations of a Subsidiary or any Principal Property to secure Indebtedness that existed prior to the creation of such Indebtedness or other obligations, shall not involve the creation of Indebtedness in an amount equal to the principal amount guaranteed or secured by such Lien.

Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions

We will not, and will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to, sell or transfer, directly or indirectly, except to us or a Restricted Subsidiary, as an entirety, or any substantial portion thereof, with the intention of taking back a lease of such property, except a lease for a period of 12 months, which it is intended that the use of such property by the lessee will be discontinued; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, we may sell any such Principal Property and lease it back for a longer period:

(1) if we or such Restricted Subsidiary would be entitled, pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture described above under "Description of Debt," to create a mortgage on the property to be leased securing Funded Debt in an amount equal to the Attributable Debt with respect to such transaction without equally and ratably securing the outstanding notes;

(2) if we promptly inform the trustee of such transaction, the net proceeds of such transaction are at least equal to the fair market value (as determined by board resolution) of such property, and we cause an amount equal to the net proceeds of the sale to be applied to the retirement, or the payment of such proceeds, of Funded Debt Incurred or assumed by us or a Restricted Subsidiary (including the notes); or

(3) if we, within 180 days after the sale or transfer, apply or cause a Restricted Subsidiary to apply an amount equal to the net proceeds of the sale or transfer or the fair market value of the Principal Property (or portion thereof) so sold and leased back at the time of entering into such transaction (in either case as determined by board resolution) to purchase other Principal Property having a fair market value at least equal to the fair market value of the Principal Property (or portion thereof) sold or transferred in such sale and leaseback transaction.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we or any Restricted Subsidiary may enter into sale and leaseback transactions in addition to those described in this paragraph and without any obligation to retire any outstanding notes or other Funded Debt, provided that at the time of entering into such transaction and after giving effect thereto, the total outstanding Attributable Debt Incurred pursuant to this paragraph, together with any of the total outstanding Liens created, assumed or otherwise incurred pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture described above in the third paragraph under "Description of Debt," does not exceed 10% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets.

“Lien” with respect to any property or assets, means any mortgage or deed of trust, pledge, hypothecation, assignment, deposit in escrow, charge, easement (other than any easement not materially impairing usefulness or marketability), encumbrance, preference, priority or other preferential arrangement of any kind or nature whatsoever on or with respect to such property or assets (including, without limitation, a retention agreement having substantially the same economic effect as any of the foregoing), but not including the interest of a lessor under a lease under generally accepted accounting principles.

“Principal Property” means any land, land improvements or building, together with the land upon which it is erected and fixtures thereon, in any case, owned or leased by us or any Restricted Subsidiary and located in the United States, the gross book value (without deduction of any liabilities) of which on the date as of which the determination is being made is an amount which exceeds 1.0% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets.

“Restricted Subsidiary” means any Subsidiary which, at the time of determination, owns or is a lessee pursuant to a capital lease obligation.

“Significant Subsidiary” means any Subsidiary that would be a “significant subsidiary” as defined in Article 1, Rule 1-02 of Regulation S-X under the Securities Act, as such Regulation is in effect on the date of the Supplemental Indenture.

“Subsidiary” of a Person means, with respect to any Person, any corporation, association, partnership or other business entity of which such Person owns or controls, directly or indirectly, a total voting power of the Capital Stock entitled (without regard to the occurrence of any contingency) to vote in the election of directors or other governing body, at the time owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by (1) such Person, (2) such Person and one or more Subsidiaries of such Person or (3) any one or more of such Person.

Consolidation; Merger or Sale of Substantially All Assets

We may: (1) consolidate or merge with or into another Person; or (2) sell, assign, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of all or part of our assets and our Subsidiaries taken as a whole, in one or more related transactions, to another Person; if:

(1) either: (a) we are the surviving corporation; or (b) the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger or such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition has been made is a corporation organized or existing under the laws of the United States or the District of Columbia (any such Person, the "Successor Company");

(2) the Successor Company assumes all the obligations of Airgas under the notes and the Indenture pursuant to agreement with the trustee; and

(3) immediately after such transaction no default exists.

The Successor Company will be the successor to Airgas and shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right under the Indenture, and the predecessor company shall be released from its obligations with respect to the notes, including with respect to its obligations of interest on the notes. Under these circumstances, if our properties or assets become subject to a Lien not permitted by the Indenture, we will not be in default under the notes.

Reports

Whether or not required by the Commission, so long as any notes are outstanding, Airgas will furnish to the holders of notes, with the Commission's rules and regulations:

(1) all quarterly and annual financial information that would be required to be contained in a filing with the Commission if Airgas were required to file such Forms, including a "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and annual information only, a report on the annual financial statements by Airgas' certified independent accountants; and

(2) all current reports that would be required to be filed with the Commission on Form 8-K if Airgas were required to file such reports.

In addition, whether or not required by the Commission, Airgas will file a copy of all of the information and reports referred to in the preceding paragraph with the Commission for public availability within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and regulations (unless the Commission determines that it is not appropriate to make such information available to securities analysts and prospective investors upon request, provided that for the avoidance of doubt, the Commission shall be deemed furnished to holders of notes).

Events of Default

An event of default under the Indenture with respect to the notes includes the following:

- failure to pay interest on the notes for 30 days;
- failure to pay principal on the notes when due;
- failure to perform any of the other covenants or agreements in the Indenture relating to the notes that continues for 60 days after the trustee or holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the notes then outstanding (for purposes of the financial statements, the grace period will be extended to 90 days);

- default under any mortgage, indenture or instrument under which there may be issued or by which there may be secured money borrowed by Airgas or any of its Significant Subsidiaries (or the payment of which is guaranteed by Airgas or any of its Significant Subsidiaries) (whether such Indebtedness or guarantee now exists, or is created after the date of the Indenture, if that default (a) is caused by such Indebtedness after its stated maturity after giving effect to any applicable grace period provided in such Indebtedness (a “Payment Default”); or (b) is caused by such Indebtedness prior to its express maturity, and, in each case, the principal amount of any such Indebtedness, together with any interest on such Indebtedness, is due and payable, or other such Indebtedness under which there has been a Payment Default or the maturity of which has been so accelerated, or
- certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization relating to us.

The Indenture provides that the trustee will, with certain exceptions, notify the holders of notes of any event of default known to the trustee 90 days after the occurrence of such event.

If an event of default (other than with respect to certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization) occurs and is continuing, the trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the notes then outstanding may declare the principal amount to be due and payable with respect to certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization occurs and is continuing, then all of the notes will ipso facto become due and payable immediately in an amount equal to the principal amount of the notes, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date the notes are due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the trustee or any holder. Subject to certain conditions, the holders of a majority in principal amount of the notes then outstanding can rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences.

We are required to file an annual officers’ certificate with the trustee concerning our compliance with the Indenture. Subject to the conditions set forth relating to the duties of the trustee, the trustee is not obligated to exercise any of its rights or powers at the request or direction of any of the holders of notes offered the trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to the trustee. If the holders provide security or indemnity satisfactory to the trustee, the principal amount of the outstanding notes during an event of default may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceedings against the trustee under the Indenture or exercising any of the trustee’s trusts or powers with respect to the notes.

Prior to the acceleration of the maturity of the notes, the holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the notes then outstanding, or the holders of all outstanding notes waive any past default or event of default and its consequences, except a default or event of default of, premium, if any, or interest on any note (which may only be waived with the consent of each holder of notes affected) or (b) in respect of any provision of the Indenture which cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the holder of each note outstanding affected by such modification.

Book-Entry, Delivery and Form

The notes initially will be represented by one or more permanent global certificates in definitive, fully registered form (the “Global Notes”) to be deposited upon issuance with The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York (“DTC”), and registered in the name of a nominee of DTC as the certificate.

The Global Notes

DTC has advised us that pursuant to procedures established by it (i) upon the issuance of the Global Notes, DTC or its custodian will credit to the principal amount at maturity of the individual beneficial interests represented by such Global Notes to the respective accounts of the with such depository and (ii) ownership of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will be shown on, and the transfer of such ownership records maintained by DTC or its nominee (with respect to interests of participants) and the records of participants (with respect to interests of participants). Ownership of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will be limited to persons who have accounts with DTC (“participants”). Ownership of beneficial interests in the Global Notes through participants holders may hold their interests in the Global Notes directly through DTC if they are participants in such system, or otherwise through participants in such system that are participants in such system.

So long as DTC, or its nominee, is the registered owner or holder of the notes, DTC or such nominee, as the case may be, will be the registered holder of the notes represented by such Global Notes for all purposes under the indenture governing the notes. No beneficial owner of a note will be able to transfer that interest except in accordance with DTC’s procedures, in addition to those provided for under the indenture with respect to the notes.

Payments of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest (including additional interest) on, the Global Notes will be made to DTC or its nominee, as the registered owner of the Global Notes. None of Airgas, the trustee or any paying agent under the indenture governing the notes will be liable for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in the Global Notes or for reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interest.

DTC has advised us that its present practice is, upon receipt of any payment of principal, premium, if any, and interest (including additional interest) on the Global Notes, to credit immediately participants’ accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the Global Notes as shown on the records of DTC. Payments by participants to owners of beneficial interests in the Global Notes held through such standing instructions and customary practice, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the name of such participants. Such payments will be the responsibility of such participants.

Transfers between participants in DTC will be effected in the ordinary way through DTC’s same-day funds system in accordance with the procedures set forth in the indenture governing the notes. If a holder requires physical delivery of a certificated security for any reason, including to sell notes to persons other than DTC, or to pledge such securities, such holder must transfer its interest in a Global Note, in accordance with the normal procedures set forth in the indenture governing the notes.

DTC has advised us that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of notes, including the presentation of notes for payment, at the direction of one or more participants to whose account the DTC interests in the Global Notes are credited and only in respect of such principal amount of notes as to which such participant or participants has or have given such direction. However, if there is an event of default under the indenture governing the notes, DTC will exchange the Global Notes for certificated securities, which it will distribute to its participants.

DTC has advised us as follows: DTC is a limited purpose trust company organized under the laws of the State of New York, a member of the New York Clearing System, a “clearing corporation” within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code and a “Clearing Agency” registered pursuant to the Exchange Act. DTC was created to hold securities for its participants and facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of its participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Participants include brokers, dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations and certain other organizations. Indirect access to the DTC system is available through brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a participant, either directly or indirectly.

Although DTC has agreed to the foregoing procedures in order to facilitate transfers of interests in the Global Note among participants, DTC has no obligation to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time. Neither we nor the trustee will have any responsibility by DTC or its participants or indirect participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

Clearstream. Clearstream is incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg as a professional depository. Clearstream holds securities for Clearstream Participants and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between Clearstream Participants. Clearstream's book-entry changes in accounts of Clearstream Participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Clearstream provides, with, among other things, services for safekeeping, administration, clearance and establishment of internationally traded securities and interfaces with domestic markets in several countries. As a professional depository, Clearstream is subject to regulation by the Luxembourg Institute. Clearstream Participants are recognized financial institutions around the world, including underwriters, securities brokers and clearing corporations and certain other organizations, and may include the underwriters. Indirect access to Clearstream is also available to dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Clearstream Participant either directly or indirectly.

Distributions with respect to notes held beneficially through Clearstream will be credited to cash accounts of Clearstream Participants and procedures to the extent received by DTC for Clearstream.

Euroclear. Euroclear was created in 1968 to hold securities for participants of Euroclear ("Euroclear Participants") and to clear a Euroclear Participant through simultaneous electronic book-entry delivery against payment, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of securities and cash. Euroclear includes various other services, including securities lending and interfaces with domestic markets in several markets in several countries. Euroclear is operated by Euroclear Bank S.A.J.N.V (the "Euroclear Operator") and Clearance Systems S.C., a Belgian cooperative corporation (the "Cooperative"). All operations are conducted by the Euroclear Operator. Clearing accounts and Euroclear cash accounts are accounts with the Euroclear Operator, not the Cooperative. The Cooperative establishes the accounts of Euroclear Participants. Euroclear Participants include banks (including central banks), securities brokers and dealers and other professional firms, and may include the underwriters. Indirect access to Euroclear is also available to other firms that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Euroclear Participant, either directly or indirectly.

The Euroclear Operator is regulated and examined by the Belgian Banking Commission.

Links have been established among DTC, Clearstream and Euroclear to facilitate the initial issuance of the notes sold outside of the U.S. and transfers of the notes associated with secondary market trading.

Although DTC, Clearstream and Euroclear have agreed to the procedures provided below in order to facilitate transfers, they are not obligated to perform these procedures, and these procedures may be modified or discontinued at any time.

Clearstream and Euroclear will record the ownership interests of their participants in much the same way as DTC, and DTC will record the ownership interests of the U.S. agents of Clearstream and Euroclear, as participants in DTC. When notes are to be transferred from the account of a DTC participant, a Clearstream participant or a Euroclear participant, the purchaser must send instructions to Clearstream or Euroclear through a participant in DTC. Clearstream or Euroclear, as the case may be, will instruct its U.S. agent to receive notes against payment. After settlement, Clearstream or Euroclear will credit its participant's account on the next day (European time).

Because settlement is taking place during New York business hours, DTC participants will be able to employ their usual procedures with the relevant U.S. agent acting for the benefit of Clearstream or Euroclear participants. The sale proceeds will be available to the DTC seller on the next day to the DTC participant, a cross-market transaction will settle no differently than a trade between two DTC participants.

When a Clearstream or Euroclear participant wishes to transfer notes to a DTC participant, the seller will be required to send instructions to Euroclear through a participant at least one business day prior to settlement. In these cases, Clearstream or Euroclear will instruct its U.S. agent to receive notes against payment for them. The payment will then be reflected in the account of the Clearstream or Euroclear participant the following day. If settlement fails, proceeds credited to the Clearstream or Euroclear participant's account will instead be valued as of the actual settlement date.

You should be aware that you will only be able to make and receive deliveries, payments and other communications involving notes through Clearstream or Euroclear on the days when those clearing systems are open for business. Those systems may not be open for business on days when banks are open for business in the United States. In addition, because of time zone differences there may be problems with completing transactions through Clearstream or Euroclear on the same business day as in the United States.

Certificated Securities

A Global Note is exchangeable for certificated securities if:

- DTC (1) notifies us that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for the Global Notes or (2) has ceased to be a depository under the Exchange Act and, in either case, we fail to appoint a successor depository;
- we, at our option, notify the trustee in writing that we elect to cause the issuance of the notes in certificated form (provided that, under normal circumstances, DTC would notify participants of our determination, but would only withdraw beneficial interests from a Global Note if the participant is a DTC participant); or
- there has occurred and is continuing a default or an event of default with respect to the notes.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion summarizes certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of

This summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the “Code,” regulations issued under the Code and administrative rulings and practice, all as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change. Any such change may be applied retroactively and affect the U.S. federal income tax consequences described in this prospectus supplement. This summary only addresses tax consequences of the purchase of notes at initial issuance for the “issue price,” which will equal the first price at which a substantial amount of the notes is sold for money (whether to houses, brokers, or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers), and own the notes, and the meaning of the Code and not as part of a “straddle” or a “conversion transaction” for U.S. federal income tax purposes, or as part of

This summary does not discuss all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to particular investors or to investors subject to special U.S. federal income tax laws (such as insurance companies, banks, financial institutions, tax-exempt organizations, retirement plans, regulated investment companies, subject to the alternative minimum tax, partnerships or other pass-through entities (or investors in such entities), securities dealers, expatriates, whose functional currency for tax purposes is not the U.S. dollar). If any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes is a partner in the partnership will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. A partner of a partnership making an investment in the notes should consult its tax advisers with respect to the tax treatment of holding notes through the partnership. This summary does not address consequences arising out of the tax laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction, any U.S. federal estate or gift tax consequences, or consequences resulting from the newly enacted Medicare tax on investment income. We have not and do not intend to seek a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to any matters discussed in this section, and we cannot assure you that the IRS will not challenge one or more of the tax consequences

In certain circumstances, the notes provide for the payment of amounts in excess of stated interest or principal. Our obligation to pay such amounts may implicate the provisions of the Treasury regulations relating to “contingent payment debt instruments.” However, the possibility of such a payment will not cause the notes to be treated as contingent payment debt instruments if, as of the issue date, such contingencies are “remote” or “incidental.” In certain circumstances, if it is significantly more likely than not that such contingencies will not occur. Although the matter is not free from doubt, we believe that these contingencies should not cause the notes to be treated as contingent payment debt instruments. This determination will be binding on the IRS. We disclose our contrary position to the IRS in the manner required by applicable Treasury regulations. However, this determination is not binding and there is no assurance that our position would be sustained if challenged by the IRS. If the IRS successfully challenged this determination, it could affect the timing and character of the income that a holder must recognize (including, for example, by treating gain recognized by holders upon a payment in excess of principal as income and requiring a holder to accrue interest income at a rate higher than the stated interest on the notes). The remainder of this discussion does not be treated as contingent payment debt instruments. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential application of the debt regulations to the notes and the consequences thereof.

Persons considering the purchase of the notes should consult their tax advisers concerning the application of the U.S. federal income tax and Medicare tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the notes in any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction.

Prospectus Supplement - Airgas, Inc.

Table of Contents

It is expected, and therefore this discussion assumes, that the notes will be issued without original issue discount for U.S. federal

U.S. holders

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of a note that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of any State thereof or the District of Columbia;
- an estate whose income is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have authority to control all of its substantial decisions, or that was a domestic trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the date it was created and continues to be treated as a domestic trust.

Treatment of interest

Stated interest on the notes will be taxable to a U.S. Holder as ordinary income as the interest accrues or is paid in accordance with U.S. federal income tax accounting.

Treatment of dispositions of notes

Upon the sale, exchange, retirement, redemption or other taxable disposition of a note, a U.S. Holder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount received on such disposition (other than any amounts attributable to accrued and unpaid interest, which will be treated as interest income not previously included in income) and the U.S. Holder’s tax basis in the note. A U.S. Holder’s tax basis in a note will be, in general, the cost to the U.S. Holder. Gain or loss realized on the sale, exchange, retirement or redemption of a note generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be taxed at the time of such sale, exchange, retirement, redemption or other taxable disposition, the note has been held for more than one year. For certain preferential tax rates may apply to gain recognized as long-term capital gain. A U.S. Holder’s ability to deduct capital losses is subject to U.S. federal income tax law.

Non-U.S. holders

For purposes of this discussion, a “Non-U.S. Holder” is a beneficial owner of notes that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, an individual, partnership, or trust that is not a U.S. Holder.

For purposes of the following discussion, any interest income and any gain realized on the sale, exchange, retirement, redemption or other taxable disposition of notes will be considered “U.S. trade or business income” if such interest income or gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States.

Treatment of interest

A Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax in respect of interest income on the notes if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

Prospectus Supplement - Airgas, Inc.

- the interest is not U.S. trade or business income;
- the Non-U.S. Holder does not actually or constructively own 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all class

Prospectus Supplement - Airgas, Inc.

Table of Contents

- the Non-U.S. Holder is not a “controlled foreign corporation” that is actually or constructively related to us;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is not a bank which acquired the note in consideration for an extension of credit made pursuant to a normal course of its trade or business; and
- the Non-U.S. Holder provides to us or our paying agent an appropriate statement on a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN with all appropriate attachments, signed under penalties of perjury, identifying the Non-U.S. Holder and stating, among other things, that the Non-U.S. Holder is not a United States person. If a note is held through a securities clearing organization, bank or another financial institution in the ordinary course of its trade or business, this requirement is satisfied if (i) the Non-U.S. Holder provides such a statement to the clearing organization, bank or institution and (ii) the organization or institution, under penalties of perjury, certifies to us that it has received such a form from the Non-U.S. Holder or another intermediary and furnishes us or our paying agent with a copy.

To the extent these conditions are not met, a 30% withholding tax will apply to interest income on the notes that is not U.S. trade or business income. If an applicable income tax treaty reduces or eliminates such tax (and the Non-U.S. Holder provides us or our paying agent a properly executed substitute form)).

If interest is U.S. trade or business income, the Non-U.S. Holder will generally be exempt from withholding tax, although to avoid being treated as a U.S. Holder, the Non-U.S. Holder must provide an appropriate statement to that effect on an applicable IRS Form W-8 (or substitute form). Non-U.S. Holders should consult with their tax advisor as to whether different rules than those described in the preceding sentence may apply as the result of an applicable income tax treaty.

A Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to all interest income that is U.S. trade or business income, as a U.S. Holder, as described above (unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise). A Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation or partnership will also be subject to branch profits tax at a 30% rate (or lower applicable treaty rate) on such holder’s effectively connected earnings and profits attributable to the notes.

Treatment of dispositions of notes

Generally, a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on gain realized upon the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of a note unless:

- such holder is an individual present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition and certain other conditions are met, in which case such holder will be subject to a 30% U.S. federal income tax on the gain realized on the sale or other disposition, which may be offset by certain U.S. source capital losses, or
- the gain is U.S. trade or business income, in which case such holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the gain realized on the sale or other disposition as described above (unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise). Additionally, in such event, Non-U.S. Holders will also be subject to a 30% (or lower applicable treaty rate) branch profits tax on such holder’s effectively connected earnings and profits attributable to the notes.

Information reporting requirements and backup withholding

We generally will report to non-corporate U.S. Holders and the IRS interest payments and proceeds from a disposition (including retirement or other disposition) of notes.

Non-corporate U.S. Holders generally will be subject to backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28% and scheduled to increase to 37% in 2018) on interest payments and proceeds from a disposition of notes if the U.S. Holder:

- furnishes an incorrect TIN;
- is notified by the IRS that it is subject to backup withholding because it has previously failed to properly report payments;
- under certain circumstances, fails to certify, under penalties of perjury, that it has furnished a correct TIN and has not been subject to backup withholding for failure to report interest and dividend payments; or
- fails to establish an exemption from backup withholding.

We will report to Non-U.S. Holders of the notes and the IRS amounts of interest paid on or with respect to the notes and the amount of payments. Copies of the information returns reporting such interest and withholding may be made available to the tax authorities in force of an income tax treaty or agreement.

A Non-U.S. Holder may also be subject to backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28% and scheduled to increase to 31% in 2018) on the notes. However, payments of interest to a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to backup withholding if the Non-U.S. Holder certifies under penalties of perjury (for instance, on an IRS Form W-8 BEN) or satisfies the requirements of an otherwise established exemption.

The payment of the proceeds from a disposition (including a retirement or redemption) of notes by a Non-U.S. Holder to or through a United States or foreign, will be subject to information reporting and possible backup withholding unless the Non-U.S. Holder certifies under penalties of perjury or satisfies the requirements of an otherwise established exemption.

If the proceeds from a disposition (including a retirement or redemption) of notes are paid to or through a foreign office of a broker-dealer person or a “U.S. related person,” as defined below, they will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting. If the proceeds are paid to a foreign office of a broker that is either a United States person or a “U.S. related person,” they generally will be subject to information reporting if the holder certifies as to its non-U.S. status under penalties of perjury or the broker has certain documentary evidence of the holder's non-U.S. status. Backup withholding will not apply to payments made through the foreign offices of a United States person or U.S. related person.

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. related person” is:

- a “controlled foreign corporation” for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- a foreign person 50% or more of whose gross income during a specified three-year period is U.S. trade or business income;
- a foreign partnership if one or more of its partners are United States persons who, in the aggregate, hold more than 50% of the partnership or if the partnership is engaged in the conduct of a U.S. trade or business.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax and may be refunded or credited against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability if the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

The U.S. federal income tax discussion set forth above is included for general information only and may not be applicable depending on the individual situation. Persons considering the purchase of the notes should consult their tax advisers concerning the application of the U.S. federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the notes arising under the laws of a foreign or other taxing jurisdiction.

Holders may present debt securities for registration of transfer at any time to any transfer agent we designate. The security registrar or transfer agent will effect the transfer or exchange if its requirements and the terms of the indenture are met.

The trustee will be appointed as security registrar for the debt securities. If a prospectus supplement refers to any transfer agents, we may at any time rescind that designation or approve a change in the location through which any transfer agent acts. We are required to maintain an office or agency for transfers and exchanges in each place where we have debt securities and to designate additional transfer agents for any series of debt securities.

In the case of any redemption, we will not be required to register the transfer or exchange of:

- any debt security during a period beginning 15 business days prior to the mailing of the relevant notice of redemption or maturity and ending 15 business days after the mailing of such notice; or
- any debt security that has been called for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any debt security.

Payment and Paying Agents

Unless we inform you otherwise in a prospectus supplement, payments on the debt securities will be made in U.S. dollars at the office of the trustee or paying agent. At our option, however, payments may be made by wire transfer for global debt securities or by check mailed to the address of the trustee or paying agent as it appears in the security register. Unless we inform you otherwise in a prospectus supplement, interest payments may be made to the person to whom the security is registered at the close of business on the record date for the interest payment.

Unless we inform you otherwise in a prospectus supplement, the trustee under the applicable indenture will be designated as the trustee for the debt securities issued under that indenture. We may at any time designate additional paying agents or rescind the designation of any paying agent and designate an office through which any paying agent acts.

If the principal of, or any premium or interest on, debt securities of a series is payable on a day that is not a business day, the payment will be made on the following business day. For these purposes, unless we inform you otherwise in a prospectus supplement, a “business day” means each day on which the New York and foreign exchange markets settle payments in the place or places where the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest, if any, on the debt securities is payable, or place of publication. Unless otherwise specified, “business day” shall exclude any day on which commercial banks and foreign banks make payments in London.

Subject to the requirements of any applicable abandoned property laws, the trustee and paying agent will pay to us upon written demand the money for payments on the debt securities that remains unclaimed for two years after the date upon which that payment has become due. After that time, the money must look to us for payment. In that case, all liability of the trustee or paying agent with respect to that money will cease.

Book-Entry Debt Securities

The debt securities of a series may be issued in the form of one or more global debt securities that would be deposited with a depository institution as described in the prospectus supplement. Global debt securities may be issued in either temporary or permanent form. We will describe in the prospectus supplement the depository arrangement and the rights and limitations of owners of beneficial interests in any global debt security.

Satisfaction and Discharge; Defeasance

At the request of the Company, the indenture will cease to be in effect as to the debt securities of any series (except for certain obligations for the exchange of such debt securities and related coupons, if any, and hold moneys for payment of such debt securities and coupons in trust).

securities and coupons have been delivered to the trustee for cancellation or (b) all such debt securities and coupons have become due and payable at their stated maturity within one year, or are to be called for redemption within one year, and the Company has deposited with the trustee in trust, in the currency, currencies or currency unit or units in which such debt securities are payable, in an amount sufficient to pay all the principal of, and any, on, such debt securities on the dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of such debt securities.

The Company may defease any series of debt securities and, at its option, either (a) be discharged after 123 days from any and all such series of debt securities (except for certain obligations to register the transfer of or exchange debt securities and related coupons, replace securities and coupons, maintain paying agencies and hold moneys for payment in trust) or (b) eliminate the requirement to comply with the indenture in respect of such series. In order to exercise either defeasance option, the Company must deposit with the trustee in trust, in the currency, currencies or currency unit or units in which such debt securities are payable all the principal (including any mandatory sinking fund payments) on, such series on the dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of such series. Among the conditions to the Company's exercise of either option, the Company is required to deliver to the trustee an opinion of counsel to the effect that the deposit and related defeasance would not cause the Company to recognize income, gain or loss for United States Federal income tax purposes and that the holders of such series will be subject to United States Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such option had not been exercised.

Events of Default, Notice and Waiver

The following are events of default under each indenture with respect to any series of debt securities that we may issue:

- default for 30 days in payment of any interest installment when due;
- default in payment of principal of, or premium, if any, on, debt securities of such series when due at their stated maturity, redemption or otherwise;
- default for 30 days in the making of any payment for a sinking, purchase or analogous fund provided for in respect of debt securities of such series;
- default for 60 days after notice to the Company by the trustee or by holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of such series in the performance of any covenant or agreement in the debt securities of such series or in the indenture with respect to such series;
- certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency and reorganization; and
- any other event of default provided with respect to the debt securities of such series.

No event of default with respect to a single series of indebtedness issued under the indenture (and any supplemental indentures) shall constitute a default with respect to any other series of indebtedness issued thereunder.

The indenture provides that the trustee will, within 90 days after the occurrence of a default with respect to the debt securities of such series notice of all uncured and unwaived defaults known to it; provided that, except in the case of default in payment of principal or premium or interest, if any, on, or a sinking fund installment, if any, with respect to any of the debt securities of such series, the trustee will be protected in withholding such notice if it in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the best interests of the holders of the debt securities of such series. The term “default” for the purpose of this provision only means the happening of any of the events of default if any grace period or notice requirement is eliminated.

The indenture contains provisions entitling the trustee, subject to the duty of the trustee during an event of default to act with the best interests of the holders of the debt securities in mind, to be indemnified by the holders of the debt securities before proceeding to exercise any right or power under the indenture at the request of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of any series.

The indenture provides that the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of any series may in their own interest, at any time, method and place of conducting proceedings for remedies available to the trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the trustee by the indenture.

The indenture includes a covenant that obligates us to file annually with the trustee an officers’ certificate stating whether any default exists.

In certain cases, the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of any series may on behalf of the holders of such series waive any past default or event of default with respect to the debt securities of such series or compliance with certain provisions of the indenture. Among other things, a default not theretofore cured in payment of the principal of, or premium or interest, if any, on, any of the debt securities of a majority in principal amount of a series of outstanding debt securities also have certain rights to rescind any declaration of acceleration of such series after all events of default with respect to such series not arising from such declaration shall have been cured.

Modification of the Indenture

The indenture allows us and the trustee, without the consent of any holders of debt securities, to enter into supplemental indentures or amendments to the indenture, in any of the following things, of:

- evidencing the succession of another corporation and the assumption by such corporation of the covenants in the indenture;
- adding covenants that apply to us;
- adding additional events of default;
- establishing the form or terms of any series of debt securities issued under such supplemental indentures or curing ambiguities in the indenture; and
- making other provisions that do not adversely affect the interests of the holders of any series of debt securities in any material respect.

The indenture allows us and the trustee, with the consent of the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of the affected series (acting as one class), to execute supplemental indentures adding any provisions to or changing or eliminating any of the provisions of the indenture or modifying the rights of the holders of the debt securities of such series. But no supplemental indenture may, without the consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the debt securities affected thereby, among other things:

- (1) change the stated maturity of the principal of, or any installment of principal of or interest on, any debt security;
- (2) reduce the principal amount of, the rate of interest on, or any premium payable upon the redemption of, any debt security;
- (3) extend the time for payment of interest on the debt securities;

(6) reduce the percentage in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of any series, the consent of whose holder supplemental indenture or any waiver (in compliance with certain provisions of the indenture or certain defaults thereunder and the indenture; and

(7) modify any of the foregoing provisions or the provisions for the waiver of certain covenants and defaults, except to increase the aggregate principal amount of outstanding debt securities the consent of the holders of which is required or to provide with the right to condition the effectiveness of any supplemental indenture as to that series on the consent of the holders of a specified percentage amount of outstanding debt securities of such series or to provide that certain other provisions of the indenture cannot be modified without the holder of each outstanding debt security affected thereby.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We may sell the debt securities in any of three ways: (i) through underwriters, (ii) through dealers or agents or (iii) directly to a limited number of purchasers or to a single purchaser. The applicable prospectus supplement will set forth the terms of the offering of the debt securities, including the names of any underwriters, the purchase price and the proceeds we receive from such sale, any underwriting discounts and other items, any compensation, any initial public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallowed or paid to dealers and other special provisions. Only the agents or underwriters named in a prospectus supplement are agents or underwriters in connection with the securities being offered in this prospectus supplement.

If we use underwriters in the sale, the debt securities will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold in various transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. The debt securities may be sold to the public through underwriting syndicates represented by managing underwriters or by underwriters without a syndicate. Unless otherwise stated in the prospectus supplement, the obligations of the underwriters to purchase debt securities will be subject to certain conditions precedent and the underwriters will not be obligated to purchase all the debt securities of a series if any are purchased. Any initial public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed may be changed from time to time.

We may sell debt securities directly or through agents designated by us from time to time. Any agent involved in the offer or sale of debt securities in which this prospectus is delivered will be named, and any commissions payable by us to such agent will be set forth, in the prospectus supplement. If not so indicated in the prospectus supplement, any such agent will be acting on a best efforts basis for the period of its appointment.

We may authorize agents or underwriters to solicit offers by certain types of institutions to purchase debt securities from us at the time of the offering or the prospectus supplement pursuant to delayed delivery contracts providing for payment and delivery on a specified date in the future. Subject to those conditions set forth in the prospectus supplement, and the prospectus supplement will set forth the commissions payable for such sales.

Agents and underwriters may be entitled under agreements entered into with us and/or our subsidiaries to indemnification against certain liabilities under the Securities Act, and/or to contribution with respect to payments which the agents or underwriters may be required to make. We, our agents and underwriters may be customers of, engage in transactions with, or perform services for, the Company in the ordinary course of business.

Each series of debt securities will be a new issue of securities with no established trading market. Any underwriters to whom we offer debt securities in this offering and sale may make a market in such debt securities, but such underwriters will not be obligated to do so and may discontinue a market at any time without notice. No assurance can be given as to the liquidity of the trading market for any debt securities.

During and after an offering through underwriters, the underwriters may purchase and sell the securities in the open market. They may also engage in over-allotment and stabilizing transactions and purchases to cover syndicate short positions created in connection with the offering. They may also engage in a penalty bid, whereby selling concessions allowed to syndicate members or other broker-dealers for the offered securities sold for their account to the syndicate if such offered securities are repurchased by the syndicate in stabilizing or covering transactions. These activities may stabilize the market price of the offered securities, which may be higher than the price that might otherwise prevail in the open market. If commenced, such activities may be discontinued at any time.

Unless otherwise indicated in a prospectus supplement or confirmation of sale, the purchase price of the securities will be required to be paid in readily available funds in New York City.
