28. MiFID II product governance / Retail investors, professional investors and ECPs target markets:

Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”) product governance / Retail investors, professional investors and eligible counterparties (“ECPs”) target market: Solely for the purposes of each manufacturer’s product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that (i) the target market for the Notes is ECPs, professional clients and retail clients, each as defined in MiFID II; and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the manufacturers’ target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturers’ target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

IBRD does not fall under the scope of application of the MiFID II package. Consequently, IBRD does not qualify as an “investment firm”, “manufacturer” or “distributor” for the purposes of MiFID II.

For the purposes of Term 28, “manufacturer” means each of the Managers

29. UK MIFIR product governance / Retail investors, professional investors and ECPs only target market:

Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (“UK MiFIR”) product governance / Retail investors, professional investors and ECPs only target market: Solely for the purposes of the manufacturer’s product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is only eligible counterparties, as defined in the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook (“COBS”), professional clients and retail clients, as defined in UK MiFIR; and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the manufacturer’s target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the “UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules”) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer’s target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

IBRD does not fall under the scope of application of UK MiFIR. Consequently, IBRD does not qualify as an “investment firm”, “manufacturer” or “distributor” for the purposes of UK MiFIR.

For the purposes of Term 29, “manufacturer” means each of the Managers.

GENERAL INFORMATION

IBRD’s most recent Information Statement was issued on 23 September 2020.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Supporting sustainable development in IBRD’s member countries

The net proceeds from the sale of the Notes will be used by IBRD to finance Eligible Sustainable Development Projects.

“Eligible Sustainable Development Projects” means projects, programs and activities in IBRD’s member countries designed to achieve positive social and environmental impacts and outcomes in line with IBRD’s twin goals of eliminating extreme poverty and promoting shared prosperity.

Eligible Sustainable Development Projects undergo a rigorous review and internal approval process which integrates IBRD’s sustainability policies and environmental and social requirements.

IBRD’s sustainable development bond framework (“SDBF”), as published from time to time, describes the process for selecting, evaluating and reporting on Eligible Sustainable Development Projects and contains descriptions and examples of such eligible projects.

The net proceeds from the sale of the Notes are not committed or earmarked for the lending to, or financing of, any particular Eligible Sustainable Development Projects. Returns on Notes are not linked to the performance of any particular Eligible Sustainable Development Projects. Prior to use, the net proceeds from the sale of the Notes will be invested by IBRD’s Treasury in accordance with IBRD’s liquid asset management investment policies. IBRD’s administrative and operating expenses are covered entirely by IBRD’s various sources of revenue (net income) consisting primarily of net loan revenues and investment income (as more fully described in the Information Statement). The SDBF and the information set forth therein are not a part of, or incorporated by reference into, the Prospectus.
